SALES CONDITIONS

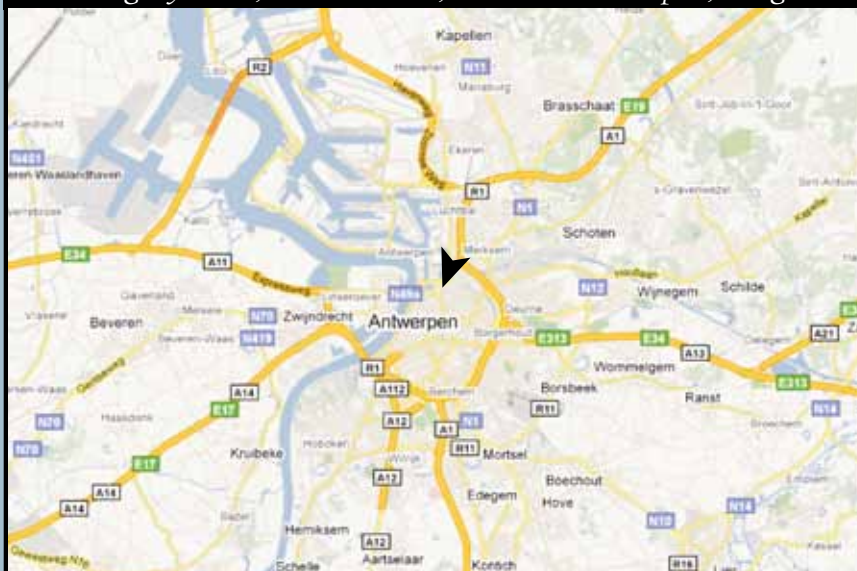

- The Dutch language is by law the only official language in the auction.
- 'Auction Sylvie's' is just the holder (intermediate) of the goods and therefore not the owner. The sale takes place against cash payment, with a certified cheque or bank or credit card. The extra costs of the transactions will be paid by the buyer.
- The goods and wines will be sold in the condition they are in, with all possible shortcomings in and mistakes of description. The buyer will be deemed to have investigated the state of the goods purchased. If he/she buys without preliminary investigation, the buyer will be deemed to have done this at one's own risk. In any case the risk of damage or risk of the purchased passes immediately after the allotment to the buyers.
- The lots as described in the catalogue are indicative and can never be regarded binding.
- The estimates of the lots are based on prices in accordance with the market and are strictly indicative and exclusive of commission. The estimates are always by lot.
- If lots are not present or not accurate caused by mistakes or other reasons, there is no liability for the holder of the goods particularly "Auction Sylvies". It is no reason to decompose the sale. Therefore by sale the bidder/buyer knows there is no right of recovery in case of shortcomings of the purchased (art. 1649 Civil Law) and neither for rescission (art. 1648 Civil Law).
- The highest and last bidder will be, after payment, the owner of the lot. Every bid is unconditional and definite.
